Diamond Dust

Glode Trotter Billy Earl is on Cincin nati's reserve list according to the later Manager Paul Hines, of the Lynchturg club, has signed Outfielder Ed. Dalrymple Outhelder Corbett, Catcher John Hunter, Second Bosenan Ed. Carlin, and Third seman Ed. Doyle. Algie McBride, of this city, will play it outfield for Charley Comiskey's St.

ool club next season. His release, with that of Pitcher Parker, was purchased from Chicago for $1,500. It is now given out that Louisville not release "Doggy" Miller, and he will remain in the hig league. Ali of which is good news, as the dumpy boy with the fog horn volce is popular in every city

The second smoker of the Business Men's Club will take place Thursday, February 18, at 8 o'clock. Good talent has been secured and an enjoyable even Harry Cauliflower, of this city, had a good season in the Texas league last year. He batted .299 and stood ninth in a list of thirty-one pitchers with a percentage He has signed with Austin again for the coming season.

Louisville is at it again. Presiden Pulliam has offered $5,000 for Cupid Childs with no more hope of getting him than of receiving the moon on a platter. Tut, tut, Harry; quit fooling and make real, earnest effort to strengthen your keystone position.

Manager Schmeiz says that Pitcher Lester German witi be worth his sniary to the Benators, even as an emergency box artist. That is, Schmeiz considers that German will be valuable as a relief patcher to pull nes out of the fire. For three or four nnings Lester is a hard proposition, and Schneiz's judgment as to using him next season seems to be good.

Washington fans are howling for the pagement of Goeckle and McGann as understudies for Cartwright and Lush. This must make J. Earle Wagner smile one of his sarcastic smoler-Sporting Life Really, this is news. The "Washington fans" mentioned must have telephoned their "how!" to Philadelphia, as nothing of the kind has been audible in this vicinity.
